At its fall meeting, the Georgia South Carolina Association voted to receive Kirkwood United Church of Christ as a congregation in full standing in the UCC. The church shared the story of their journey from their beginnings in a coffee shop through a number of different settings for worship to the present location in downtown Kirkwood. The church led by Susannah Davis currently has a worshipping congregation of 60-70 each week, and continues to grow. They are the proud supporters of nine members in discernment preparing for ordination in the UCC. Kirkwood UCC invites all of the churches of the association, their members and clergy to a service of reception into the United Church of Christ on November 20th at 5:00 pm. We will be welcoming Ben Guess the newly elected Executive Minister of Local Church Ministries of the UCC as our preacher. Following the service there will be a community wide dinner for all.

Midway Congregational UCC, Midway, GA, is embarking on an innovative community ministry, under the leadership of their new pastor, Larry Evans. Wanting to serve and strengthen the families of Liberty County, the church is opening a Center for Families and Wellness. Rev. Evans is a licensed therapist and is working in collaboration with agencies in the area to staff and equip the Center.

Holy Trinity United Church of Christ, Nashville TN celebrated their 15th year anniversary in October. Follow this link to the local Tennessee paper to read more about Holy Trinity and its celebration.

Safe Harbor Family Church has its roots in one of the strongest loops in the Bible Belt. Its members see this church community as a true sanctuary. Link here to read what was written in the local paper.
